Krazy Kat is in love with a dancer in a cafe. He is poor and has nothing to offer her. While she is dancing, a well dressed man beckons to her. She goes over to his table and he offers her a rope of pearls in return ~~of~~ for a kiss. Krazy Kat sees this and is in a jealous rage. He takes a piece of ice and puts it on a smoke ring and gives it to the girl. She is elated and snubs the rich man. Eventually the ice melts and the smoke disappears. The girl goes back to the rich man.

The wealthy man sees two strange men standing outside of the cafe. He puts two bottles into the piano at which the Kat is playing sad love songs. The men are revenue agents and they accuse the Kat of having liquor. As they are about to take him to jail, a bottle falls out from under the rich man's coat. Upon opening his coat they find many bottles hung on the inside. They arrest him and Krazy Kat goes back to his sweetheart who is very remorseful.
